SOME GLIMPSES OF

women folk are going to keep suffrage to the front in Chicago this week. Sunday evening they began picketing the hotels on convention row and also at street corners female orators held forth. The gist of their remarks was that the west is for suffrage, the cause is spreading eastward and the republican party had better get its eyes open to the necessity of treating its women voters right.

James R. Garfield, of Ohio, was secretary of the interior under Roosevelt, is spending very little time here hobnobbing with his fellow progressive leaders. Garfield's job appears to be to tell the republicans how easy it would be to defeat President Wilson this fall, "if the right kind of a man is nominated." He has nobody in view for the republicans except T. R.

William Jennings Bryan is to be an on-looker this week. He's under contract to write about the convention. The less peaceful the convention is the more he will have to write about. Therefore he's less peaceful than usual.

Gifford Pinchot dodges through the lobby of the Congress hotel every once in a while, but seldom stops to discuss the situation. He isn't particular whether the progressives and republicans get together or stay apart. Platform interest him mostly.

William Allen White, of Kansas, sizing up the situation, says the favorite sons are a joke and that nobody considers them seriously.

"As the delegates from the home state arrive they tell the truth about the favorite son," said White. "That is that he is no favorite at home. The favorite son was a post in state politics. He got the delegation to keep him quiet."

George W. Perkins, of New York, besides looking after the T. R. boom and running the progressive party generally, has taken to "writing for the papers." He's a real reporter this week. As Perkins says in his story today, "men do not have to fight with sharpshooting, drenching, and Zepelling in order to wage a mighty conflict on which the destiny of a nation or a world may hang."

Secretary George Von L. Meyer, of the republican-Roosevelt committee, rises up in a half page ad today to advise in 72 point type that the delegates "lead the world to the bone."

WILL NOT WITHDRAW TROOPS FROM MEXICO

President Preparing Answer to Carranza-Banditry Must Cease First

Washington, June 5.—President Wilson today began the draft of his reply to the latest note from Carranza demanding withdrawal of American troops, or explanation of why the United States should keep its troops on Mexican soil.

It is the administration's present intention to have its reply to Carranza's lands before the end of the week—perhaps before Thursday, to forestall as much as possible, expected adverse criticism of the president's Mexican policy at the Chicago convention.

With the personal help of Secretary Lansing, the president may complete a rough draft in time for cabinet consideration tomorrow.

That the troops withdrawal suggested would be refused, seemed certain. That the refusal will convey to the de facto government officials, finally of decision in that respect seemed also a certainty. But the answer will be couched in such terms as to leave the Carranza government ample opportunity to "keep itself right" before the Mexican public. Completely peaceful conditions below the border, the note will state, must prevail with some degree of certainty that wholesale banditry and lawlessness and raids on the American side cannot recur.

Private, but apparent authentic advice to the war department from military officials, as well as consular and private advice to the state department, which recent unrest and some anti-American feeling will be cited as explanation of the necessity for continued presence of American troops in Mexico.

Mexican "Laborers" Talk. New York, June 5.—According to information given out by the Mexican bureau of information today the Mexican syndicate of laborers has sent telegrams to President Wilson and the American Federation of Labor, demanding immediate steps be taken for the withdrawal of American troops from Mexico.

The telegrams charge that intervention in sought by the clerical element, the Diaz faction, and by ex-militarists and that these factions are attempting to cause trouble.

Pershing May Visit Columbus. El Paso, Texas, June 5.—General Pershing is reported to be contemplating a visit to Columbus, N. M. As this would be the first time the American expedition's commander re-crossed the border since entering Mexico March 15, authorities today regarded the proposed trip as portending important developments.
